

Government Success Stories from Cherry

Project

Spanish ID-card

Problem

The e-ID card applications require card readers not only in administration offices but also at private end users.

Solution

Modification of smartcard readers and keyboards in order to meet requests of private end users regarding packing, sales channel and special government approval.

Result

Cherry card readers and keyboards are present now in retail stores and web shops in Spain.